Elevated trains to Hariem to-day carried on their boilers signs reading. "To the Horse Show." And every Hariem train on these roads carried an increased number of passesgers, hearly all of whom were bound for Manhattan Field, at Eighth avenue and One Hundred and Firty-fifth street where the United States Horse and tattle show Societyeutdoor exhibition is in progress.

The interest of the crowds that attended the show this morning was centred in the handsome animals who bore off prizes yesterday. None came in for so large a share of sttention as the celebrated Foxhall, who was entered by William Easton, as agent for lord Hosebery, his owner.

Forhall, himself took his intravolin blue.
